ALLAN A. TULCHIN
CURRICULUM VITAE
March 21, 2019

CONTACT INFORMATION

Office Address (on sabbatical 2018-2019):
Department of History and Philosophy
Shippensburg University
1871 Old Main Dr.
Shippensburg, PA 17257
Office telephone (717) 477-1261
Office email: aatulchin@ship.edu

EDUCATION

University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. Inter-University Consortium for Political and Social Research, July 1993. Classes in statistics and quantitative historical methods.
Christ’s College, University of Cambridge. Junior Year Abroad, 1988-89.
Hunter College High School (New York City). Witmer Prize for best student in American History and co-winner of the Thomas A. Hunter Award (best student overall).

PROFESSIONAL APPOINTMENTS

Shippensburg University. Assistant to tenured Associate Professor of History, 2006-present.
George Mason University, Fairfax, VA. Postdoctoral Fellow in History, 2003-2006.

PUBLICATIONS

Books:

Networks of Revolution: The Spread of Enlightenment Ideas in Eighteenth-Century Bordeaux, in preparation. OUP has asked to see the manuscript, which I will be writing while on sabbatical in 2018-2019. One piece of the research is forthcoming in French Historical Studies (see below).

Articles, Book Chapter, and Review Essay:

“Weekly Enlightenment: The Affiches de Bordeaux, 1758-1765,” French Historical Studies, 42 (2) (April, 2019):175-202. This is the first installment of Networks of Revolution (see above).

“Same-Sex Couples Creating Households in Old Regime France: The Uses of the Affrèrement,” Journal of Modern History 79(3) (September, 2007):613-47. The University of Chicago Press, which publishes JMH, put out a press release to publicize it, and reports appeared in a number of publications, and on the radio. See also my opinion piece, “The 600 Year Tradition Behind Same-Sex Unions,” which appeared online at the website of the History News Network: http://hnn.us/articles/42361.html.

Book Reviews:

HONORS, AWARDS, FELLOWSHIPS

Teaching and Research Excellence grant, Shippensburg University. For summer research in France in 2014 ($3700).

Franklin Research Grant, American Philosophical Society. For summer research in France, 2010 ($4000).

Honorable Mention (i.e., second place) for the William Koren, Jr. Prize of the Society for French Historical Studies, given “for the outstanding journal article published on any era of French history by a North American scholar in an American, European, or Canadian journal during 2007.” This was given for my article “Same-Sex Couples Creating Households in Old Regime France: The Uses of the Affrèrement,” Journal of Modern History 79(3):613-47 (September 2007).

Camargo Foundation Fellowship (Cassis, France). Residential fellowship to complete the final revisions for That Men Would Praise the Lord, Fall semester, 2007.

National Endowment for the Humanities Fellowship, to participate in a Summer Seminar for Faculty on Calvinism, held at Calvin College, Grand Rapids, Michigan, July, 2004.

Eric Cochrane Travel Fellowship for dissertation research (awarded by the Univ. of Chicago Dept. of History). June, 1993.

Thomas Hunter Award (Hunter College High School). Co-winner of the top prize for graduates at one of the most prestigious high schools for the intellectually gifted in the United States.

CONFERENCE PAPERS, INVITED LECTURES, AND TALKS

“Increasing Tolerance: Jewish Wills in Eighteenth-Century Bordeaux,” invited lecture at Georgetown University, as part of a series devoted to new work in Old Regime French History, October 31, 2018.

“Googling Eighteenth-Century News: The Affiches de Bordeaux, 1758-1865,” Western Society for French History Conference, Cedar Rapids, IA, November 4, 2016 (based on the article referenced above). This talk can be viewed on the web at https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Xv9Su-Slkvw

“Ending the Wars of Religion,” invited lecture at Princeton University, as part of a conference on “Wars of Religion” organized by the Princeton Society of Fellows in the Liberal Arts, April 23-25, 2015. This paper was a shortened version of the American Historical Review article (see above).

Commentator on a panel, “Urban Conflict and Identity during the Wars of Religion,” Western Society for French History conference, San Antonio, TX, November 13-15, 2014. This comment can be viewed on the web at https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=o0WUaNbdloE
“Making Peace in the Wars of Religion,” Western Society for French History conference, Banff, October 12, 2012. This paper grew into an article for American Historical Review (see above).

Séminaire de Prof. Denis Crouzet, Université de Paris-IV Sorbonne, March 28, 2012. This talk gave an overview of That Men Would Praise the Lord (see above).

Commentator on a panel on “History, Memory and Identity in Religious War France” at the conference of the Society for French Historical Studies, Charleston, SC, February 11, 2011.

“This Joining in Marriage Surpasses All Other Delights and Kindnesses of Love: Dowry and Marriage Choice in Early Modern France,” Washington, DC area Seminar on Ancien Regime France, March 2010 (based on the article referenced above).

Commentator on a panel on “French History” as part of a conference held at the University of Chicago, May 31, 2008. I proposed this conference, which honored Prof. William H. Sewell, Jr. on his retirement.

“Séminaire de Master sur le notariat français du XVIe siècle,” workshop at the Univ. of Avignon, November 30, 2007. I spoke about research strategies with students of Prof. Françoise Moreil.

Commentator at the Mid-Atlantic Conference on British Studies, on a panel of papers ANew Research in Early Modern British History,” April 8, 2005.

“Nîmes from Catholicism to the Reformation: A Change of Identity,” Crucibles of Conflict: Confrontation and Compromise in Early Modern Europe, Center for Medieval and Renaissance Studies at the Ohio State University, March 23, 1996. (An abridged version of the following.)

“Nîmes du Catholicisme à la Réforme: un changement d’identité?” (Talk delivered at a conference on “Religion et Identité” at the University of Provence, March 22, 1995.)

Courses Taught

Historical Foundations of Global Cultures (World History survey to 1500)

Thinking Historically in a Global Age (World History survey since 1500)

Seminar in Comparative History (required course for senior History majors). My version of the course focuses on the Great Divergence.
Theory and Practice of History (required course for sophomore/junior History majors). Designed to teach students how to integrate primary and secondary sources. My version of the course focuses on the Constitutional Convention of 1787.

Europe 1450-1715: The Age of the Renaissance and Reformation
Europe 1715-1815: The Age of the Enlightenment and French Revolution
French History Since 1750
Early Modern European Political Thought
Western Civilization
The Age of Atlantic Revolutions
Early Modern Europe (MA survey course)
The Old Regime and the French Revolution
The Reformation
American History: Colonial Period to 1835

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

National and International:

American Philosophical Society. Book manuscript review.
Church History. Article Review.
Explorations in Renaissance Culture. Article review.
French Historical Studies. Article review.
French History. Article Review.
Journal of Historical Sociology. Article review.
Memorial University of Newfoundland. Tenure and promotion review.
Sixteenth Century Journal. Article Review.
Sixteenth Century Society and Conference. Member of the Nancy L. Roelker Prize Committee, 2013-2016.

Shippensburg University:

History/Philosophy Department
Speaker at the induction ceremony for members of Phi Alpha Theta (history honors society), March 26, 2015.
Middle East Search Committee
Adjunct Search Committee
Undergraduate Education Committee
Course Assessment Committee
Developed a shared cloud resource facility for survey courses

University-Wide
Academic Affairs Assessment Team (asses all University programs of instruction)
Speaker at a university forum on Salvation in Abrahamic Religion
APSCUF (faculty union) Representative Council alternate
Web Content Advisory Committee
Library Committee
Other
Instructor of two 12-part classes (2016-2017 and 2017-2018) on Jewish history at Congregation Tifereth Israel (Washington, DC)

LANGUAGES
French (medieval and modern reading, modern speaking)
German (reading and speaking)
Biblical Hebrew (reading)
Latin (Classical and medieval reading)

REFERENCES
Prof. William H. Sewell, Jr., Hixon Professor Emeritus of Political Science and History, University of Chicago. Address: Department of Political Science, University of Chicago, Pick Hall 412, 5828 S. University Ave., Chicago, IL 60637. Telephone: (773) 702-0900. Email: wsewell@uchicago.edu
Prof. Constantin Fasolt, Karl J. Weintraub Professor of History and the College, University of Chicago. Address: Department of History, University of Chicago, 1126 E. 59th Street, Mailbox 73, Chicago, IL 60637. Telephone: (773) 702-7935. Email: icon@uchicago.edu
Prof. Mack P. Holt, Professor of History, George Mason University. Address: 4400 University Drive, George Mason University, Fairfax, Virginia 22030-4444. Telephone: (703)-993-1259. Email: mholt@gmu.edu
Prof. Raymond A. Mentzer, Jr., Krumm Family Professor of Reformation Studies, University of Iowa. Address: Department of Religious Studies, 314 Gilmore Hall, University of Iowa, Iowa City, IA 52242. Telephone: (319) 335-2161. E-mail: raymond-mentzer@uiowa.edu